Service To Mankind Volunteer Policy

It is the Service To Mankind policy to appoint the most suitable volunteers and to always provide equality of opportunity. We do not discriminate against people because of their age, sex, marital status, ethnic origin, nationality, sexual orientation, trans-status, political beliefs, HIV/AIDS status, adaptable needs or religion.

Workplace Violence & Harassment Policy

A Volunteer who exhibits violent or harassing behavior may be subject to criminal prosecution and subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

Suspension & Dismissal Policy

A volunteer who fails to attend at least 3 consecutive events are liable for suspension for 2 months and may be dismissed. A Volunteer who misuses the identity of the STM may be subject to criminal prosecution and subject to disciplinary action up to and including dismissal.

Confidentiality Statement

I will abide by the values and ideas of the STM Organization. I agree not to disclose confidential information about the STM Organization, gained during my involvement with a third person.
